ENGLISH AND MATHS

Get the English and Maths skills you need for work and everyday life.

Come and join a FREE English or maths course and gain an adult qualification. If you're 19 or over our functional skills English and Maths courses can help you develop the practical skills in English and Maths that you need to live, study and work.

Perhaps you want to be able to help your children or grandchildren with their homework, get that job you are after, or improve your spelling, reading, writing or maths – whatever the reason, we can help. If you are thinking of doing GCSE English or Maths next year, joining one of these courses will let you 'brush up' the skills you will need.

You'll learn to apply English and maths skills in real-life situations through reading, writing, speaking and listening tasks.

Our groups are small, friendly and supportive and will help you build your confidence in English or Maths.

Previous students have said:

"This course has given me the confidence to try GCSE next year."

"I had fun whilst learning for the first time in my life."

"I have gained so much confidence."
